

Legal and Family Mediation Services

Whether you are facing a complicated legal matter or trying to resolve a stressful family conflict, your Employee Assistance Program (EAP) can help. By calling your EAP, you will have access to LAWPHONE Legal Referral and FamilyNet Mediation services.

How to Access Your LAWPHONE or FamilyNet Benefit

Call your toll-free EAP number and ask for a legal or family mediation referral. A UBH Specialist will connect you with LAWPHONE or FamilyNet.

When to Use LAWPHONE

Call your EAP to access LAWPHONE when you encounter a legal problem or need legal advice. LAWPHONE can assist you in drafting legal documents, help you review legal issues prior to a court appearance, and provide you with legal advice when you receive notice of a suit, summons, or subpoena to appear in court.

1-888-610-9039
1-800-842-9489 (TDD)

LAWPHONE offers:

- Free, unlimited telephonic consultations with an attorney in your state
- Free referrals to a local attorney who is experienced in helping people with problems similar to yours
- A free 30-minute, “face-to-face” consultation
- A 25% discount on additional services provided by the referral attorney

When to use FamilyNet

FamilyNet is a confidential, voluntary alternative to legal services. The mediation service available through FamilyNet can help you resolve family conflict such as divorce or separation, property and debt division, child custody, or child and elder care decisions.

FamilyNet offers:

- Referrals to local family mediators
- A 20% discount on family mediation services

Your EAP can help you with many personal and work-related concerns. Available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, our staff is experienced in helping people identify the nature of their concerns and finding the right resources to address them.